Dave Cuddy Declares Candidacy for US House, District 35,
Prioritizing Border Security and American Values.

AUSTIN, 12/8/23 – Today, Dave Cuddy officially announced his candidacy for the U.S. House, representing District 35 in Central Texas. A seasoned leader with a diverse background, Cuddy brings a wealth of experience to the table as he pledges to address critical issues affecting the nation. Inspired by the documentary "Sound of Freedom," Cuddy is determined to combat open border challenges and the distressing issue of child sex trafficking. "Open borders are not just costing America billions; they are reshaping our culture, impacting safety, and compromising our quality of life," Cuddy stated. A product of what he calls the "golden age," Cuddy reflects on a time when safety was commonplace, and communities were tightly knit. He attributes current societal challenges to misguided political policies and vows to be a catalyst for change.

Key Issues and Proposed Solutions:

1. Untrusted Elections, Two-Tier Justice, and Political Indoctrination:

- Solution: Replace Joe Biden.
- Advocate for fair and transparent elections.
- Focus on restoring justice and unbiased education.

2. Fiscal Responsibility and Decentralization:

- Endorse smaller, one-subject spending bills for accountability.
- Shift taxing and spending decisions closer to states and local governments.
- Oppose massive deficit spending and advocate for responsible fiscal policies.

3. Immigration Reform and Crime Prevention:

- Close borders to illegal immigration.
- Allocate federal funds to monitor and secure the borders.
- Discourage taxpayer money incentives for illegal immigrants.

4. Strengthening National Defense:

- Oppose "wokeness" in the military and support soldiers.
- Reject vaccine mandates.
- Advocate for cautious military engagements and strategic alliances.

5. Preserving American Values:

- Resist the push towards a one-world government.
- Protect and preserve individual rights.
- Position Texas as a stronghold in turbulent times.

About Dave Cuddy: Dave Cuddy brings a rich tapestry of experience to his candidacy, having served as a bank president, CFO of internet starts-ups, film consultant in Los Angeles, and presently as a real estate developer in Buda, Texas. His commitment to community service is evident through his leadership roles in organizations such as the Red Cross, Junior Achievement, and more. Cuddy holds a BA in Economics from Duke University, an MBA from Gonzaga and was a state legislator. As he steps into the political arena, Cuddy is poised to leverage his multifaceted background to address the pressing issues facing District 35 and contribute to building a stronger, safer, and more prosperous America.
